

Nashoba Brooks School
Winter 2012 Session

African Xylophone and Drumming Class with Music Teacher Paul Benzaquin
Day of the week: Thursday's 3:15-4:15
Grades: 3 and 4
January 5-March 8

Dear Parents,

Come play the rhythmically exciting xylophone music of Zimbabwe! Students in this session will work together as an ensemble, layering uplifting melodies, harmony parts, and thundering bass lines, to create an exciting musical whole that is sure to get an audience up on its feet. West African drumming will be explored, as well. The term will culminate with a performance sharing. No knowledge of music notation necessary.

Students come to the program directly from class and meet their teacher in the Music Room. Enrollment is limited and is on a first come basis. The cost of the 10 sessions is $250.00 and will be billed by the Business Office.

Please return the attached registration form by December 5, 2011. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me at pjennings@nashobabrooks.org or (978) 369-4591 ext 128.

Sincerely,

Penny Jennings
