

First Grade Teacher
2012-2013 Academic Year

Nashoba Brooks School is an independent, co-ed preschool and lower school and an all-girls middle school with an enrollment of 300. The school is committed to personal excellence in academics, athletics, and the arts within its mission of preparing students for "...a life of continuous learning, accomplishment, and leadership in a diverse and changing world." A Nashoba Brooks education provides an outstanding experience that is strengthened by our commitment to diversity.

This is a full-time position. The teacher is responsible for a homeroom of approximately fifteen to sixteen boys and girls. Candidates for this position will demonstrate a passion for teaching young children, as well as a deep understanding of the social, emotional, intellectual and physical development of six and seven year olds.

Skills and Experience

- Proficiency with lesson planning and curriculum development
- Experience teaching grade one in all core subjects: reading, writing, social studies, and math
- Demonstrated ability to teach students with diverse learning styles
- Demonstrated facility creating integrated curriculum units reflecting multicultural perspectives
- Experience facilitating effective student assessment
- Proficiency with technology and technology integration to support learning
- Demonstrated ability to write individualized comments on students' progress reports

Qualifications

- Bachelor's degree with significant course work in primary education. Master's degree preferred
- Minimum of three years experience in primary teaching
- Demonstrated commitment to and comfort with advancing the school's core values of diversity, service learning, and character development
- Excellent oral and written communication skills
- Commitment to ongoing professional development

Application Process

Candidates will meet with faculty and administration, as well as teach a first grade class.

Interested candidates should send a resume and cover letter to:

Penny Jennings, Lower School Head
Email: firstgrade@nashobabrooks.org
Homepage: www.nashobabrooks.org